From the President

Dear Members,

Since the last Bulletin, a party of seven attended the RIBI Conference in Dublin. This was my first RIBI Conference and visit to Dublin. It was a good conference, but the seats in the main auditorium were the most uncomfortable that I have ever experienced and you found yourself wishing each session would end so that you could get up.

At the conference dinner, Willie John McBride gave an entertaining talk and an insight into how rugby has changed over the years. The Irish Band on Saturday was a disappointment but then again it was free.

We all took several opportunities to test whether the Guinness was different in Dublin. It is if you can remember!

This is the last time I shall be writing to you as President as my year ends at the end of June. However, I would like to thank you all for giving me the opportunity to be your President and to thank you for your support throughout the year.

Finally, I would like to offer my best wishes to Mike Stevens for a successful year. It's an important one as it's Stroud's Ninetieth.

David
