From the President

Decisions, decisions - with the first snowfall for sometime should we cancel the Charity Fair or take a chance.

In the event we took a risk and thankfully enough people made it to the Hill to make it an enjoyable and worthwhile event. We have received numerous letters of thanks from the recipients of the donations made and they do appreciate the opportunity to talk about their work in detail.

Our speakers this month have included an ex headmaster who was ably introduced by his friend David Bond and a representative from the Meadows Toy Library who gave an insight into its value to the children it serves.

Our annual quiz on Thursday was again very successful - a great atmosphere was a comment I heard. Thanks to Mike and Hilary Lambert and to everyone who was involved in any way.

Jane

Charity Fair

The presentation of Fireworks Money took place at the Charity Fair Evening on the 2nd February and despite the bad weather conditions most of the recipients were able to attend.

Quiz Night

A record attendance of 38 teams took part in the Quiz at Kings Stanley Village Hall on the 19th February in aid of the St. Roses Smile Appeal.

At the end of eight rounds of quite difficult questions, there were two teams in joint first place – 'The Lord Ryeford Supporters Club' and 'Weaver Express'.

The Hall was packed

The joint winners receive their prizes

Thanks from Helen Kay of St. Roses

Many thanks to Mike Lambert and all his helpers for an excellent evening.

APOLOGIES – 2nd and 9th March Meetings

Mike Little is on holiday for the next 2 weeks so please send apologies for the meetings on the 2nd and 9th March to David Fowles – e-mail: d.r.fowles@btinternet.com
