District Skittles Competition

It was a great evening and a very close match with Stonehouse just winning by 4 pins. Mike Stevens put up a creditable score of 49 pins over 7 legs

Computers for Sri Lanka Project

The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International has just notified us that our Matching Grant Application for this project has been approved. This means that total funding for this project is now approximately £9,000

GSE Visit

Stroud hosted the GSE Team from Illinois for the day on Thursday 21st February. We collected them from their hosts at The Air Balloon at Birdlip and visited the Hook Norton Brewery. This proved a very interesting trip with tastings at the end of the tour followed by an excellent lunch at a local pub. Some of the team then took part in our Quiz Night at Kings Stanley Village Hall. Thanks to Martyn Harwood who organised the day.

Quiz Night

The Quiz Night took place at Kings Stanley Village Hall on the 21st February.

There was an excellent turn out and the 36 teams that took part battled with eight rounds of questions on a variety of subjects. Richard Lacey did an excellent job as quizmaster once the microphone problems were sorted out. He was well supported by the backup teams on answer collection marking & scoring. Inner Wheel produced a good Ploughman's Supper for everyone half way through the contest.

The Winning team receiving their prize from Richard.

The winning team was 'Ram B' (from The Ram Inn at Bussage) with 'The Bricktops' (Parkers Estate Agents) second and 'The Tyndalers' (Cotswold Tyndale RC) third.

The evening raised £1276 for the Acorns Trust

A big thank you Mike Lambert for organising the evening.
